Charalampos Margaritidis “Babis” - Drums

I started playing professionally at the age of 16, gigging all around Greece before relocating to London 15 years ago to study at London College of Music and Media under great tutors such as: Paul Elliot, Pete Cater, Darryn Farugia and Bosco Di'Oliviera.

After graduating with a BMus Hons Degree I started teaching privately as well as in schools. During my 3 years at Drumtech I specialised in latin and mediterranean percussion. I also works as a session drummer all around London and perform with my own band Jade Vine.

I have been teaching with Music House for Children for over 12 years.
